January 2022 - June 2022

Co-operated a concept restaurant called Le Cratère , Cabrerolls, France

May 2021 - September 2021

I was running a restaurant together with Chef Andrew Heimes who has a classic Gordon Bleu training and Michelin star kitchen background. My responsibilities included producing and designing the staff garments and all the interior designs, customer relations, buying, wine tastings and beverages.

Everything we served was grown on the property, produced locally and foraged.

Owner and Designer at Studio Gavelin, Marseillan, France

December 2020 - Present

I am a small independent fashion brand and what I do is up-cycling materials into new fashion garments. All materials that I use are from second-hand markets or dead-stock, which means that I do not contribute to any new material being made. I make everything myself from sketch to finished product in my house in Marseillan.
